

1974 DEN

An abstract geometric design featuring several white squares of varying sizes arranged on a black background. The squares are interconnected, forming a complex, non-representational pattern. Some squares are solid white, while others are hollow, creating a series of nested and overlapping shapes. The overall effect is a high-contrast, minimalist composition.

Editor's Foreword

The school year of 1973-74 has been a very good year. It has had its share of victories and defeats. As well as joys and sorrows. But we have profoundly established a way of life academically, socially and athletically. If one believes that genes move toward perfection of characteristics, then SOCites with the added props of being unique in his own way could fall into an advanced stage of double realities; functioning consistently with two seemingly contradictory realms simultaneously. Yet as our theme states we are "Everyday People" but each being distinguished in his own integrity. For to love life is to love contradiction and conflict. To know life is to never understand. But, to be sure that all is love with all this in mind, we could truly say it has been a very good year.

Co-Editors Foreword

Many friendships have been formed here at South Oak Cliff this year. Together we will always remember the ups and the downs, the great moments and the tragic ones. These golden memories we will always cherish.

The Administration, the Faculty, and the Student Body here at South Oak Cliff believe in having Pride and Unity. We think of ourselves as being "NUMBER ONE" academically, socially, and athletically.

In presenting to you the 1974 Den, we would like to bring to your attention year of academic, athletic, and social excellence at South Oak Cliff High School.

Coach James Gales

Dedication

We, the 1974 DEN Staff, are honored to dedicate this year's DEN to Mr. James C. Gales.

He is the coach of the award winning South Oak Cliff Basketball Team. Coach Gales led the Golden Bears to a second place State Championship.

Coach Gales is not only an outstanding coach, but a dedicated instructor. His popularity is found throughout the halls of South Oak Cliff High School.

CONGRATULATIONS Coach Gales!

An abstract geometric composition featuring a black background with several white rectangular shapes. These shapes are arranged in a way that creates a sense of depth and structure, resembling a stylized architectural plan or a complex grid. The white shapes include a large vertical rectangle on the left, a smaller square in the center, and various other rectangular blocks of different sizes and orientations scattered throughout the page.

Administration

TO OUR SENIORS:

May I take this opportunity to congratulate you on making the next step!

Your contributions to the South Oak Cliff High School will be remembered for years to come. As you know, our goal is to make every student a winner, and certainly, you have been exposed to some of the best programs anyplace.

You have made friends, not only throughout the city of Dallas, but throughout the state of Texas. You have brought honor and renown to the school by your exemplary behavior, scholastic ability, athletic prowess, leadership, character and loyalty. . a few of the basic ingredients necessary for a happy life.

May I wish each of you "Godspeed", as you journey onward and upward to your new endeavors, whatever they may be.

Very truly yours,

Louie H. McQuarter
Louie H. McQuarter, Principal

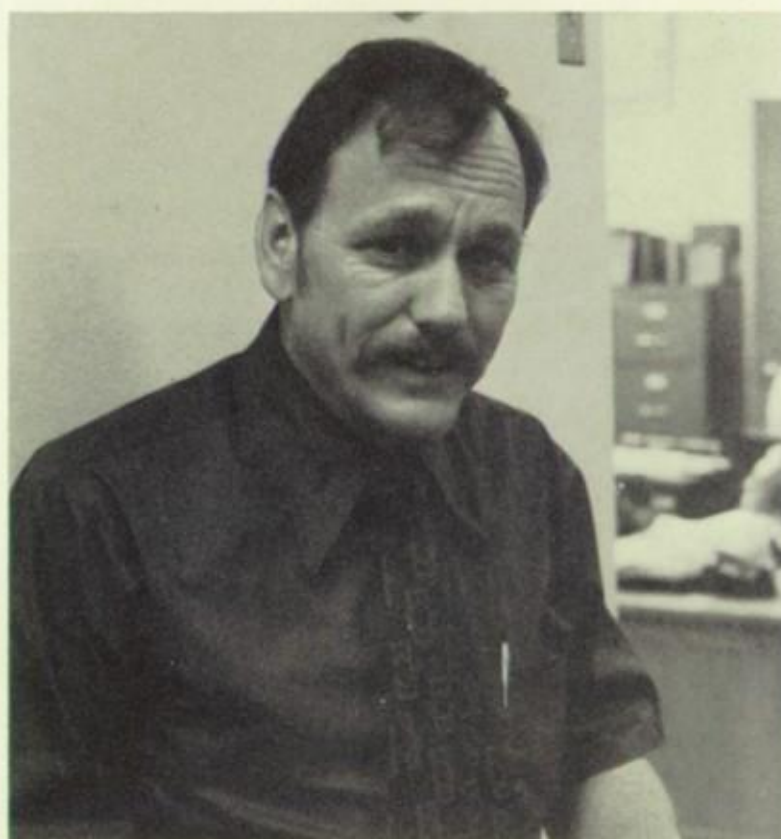

Assistant Principals

The assistant principals of South Oak
Cliff have done a tremendous job during 73-74 year in helping take care of the student body. With the new communication devices, they are able to keep in touch with one another.

Juniors*

An abstract geometric design composed of several white squares and rectangles of varying sizes, arranged in a non-uniform, overlapping pattern against a solid black background. The shapes are cut out of a larger white sheet, creating a high-contrast, minimalist aesthetic. The word "Sophomores" is printed in a white, italicized serif font within one of the larger rectangular cutouts at the bottom left.

Stylin'

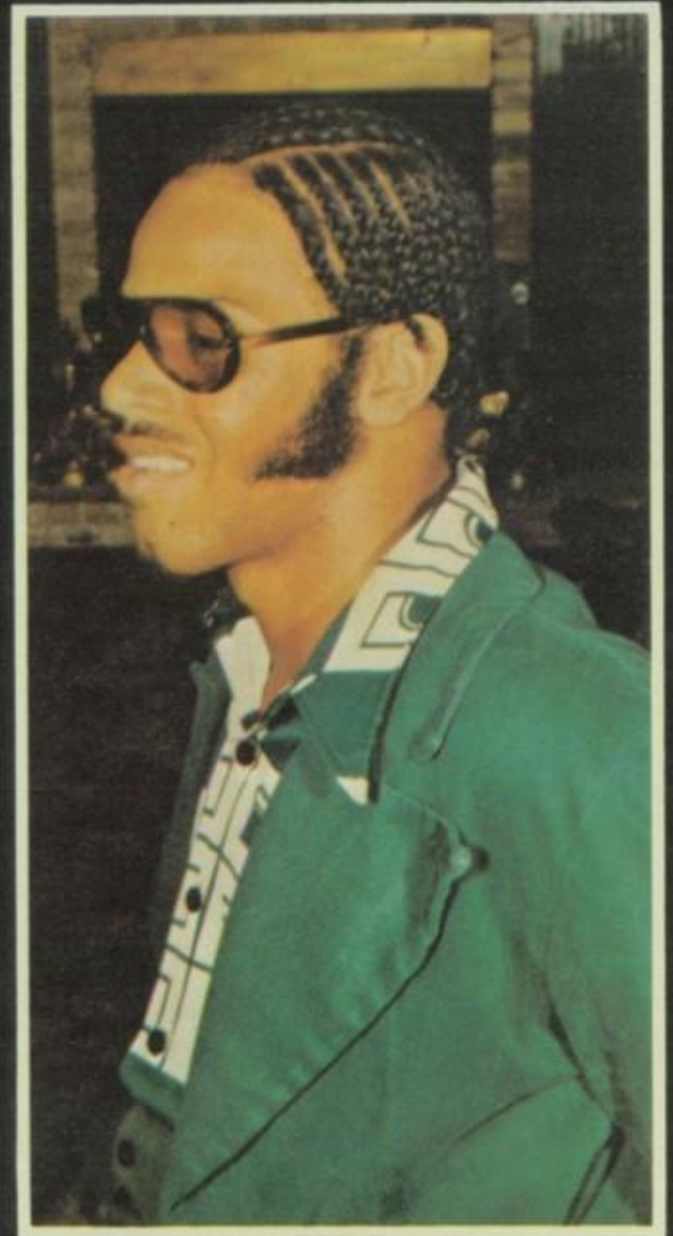

Happiness Is . . .

. . . walking through South Oak Cliff corridors and finding fashion a way of life for EVERYDAY PEOPLE.

You see SOCites sharp from head to toe, setting the pace with contemporary looks of the 1930 fashions.

Pacesetters in self-expression, you'll know us when you see us . . . STYLIN'.

AS LONG AS YOU LOVE ME

As long as you love me,
I'll stay by your side.
I'll be your companion,
Your friend and your guide.

As long as you love me,
As long as you care,
I'll do anything for you,
I'll go anywhere.

For as long as you love me,
I'll always be there.

Love is like a coach who doesn't have many players.
It seems as if he is always last at choosing.
Love is like a coach that can't win for losing.

I CAN'T STOP LOVING YOU

You've brought me joy throughout the years.
You've brought me pain sorrow, and tears.
But yet I remember the hurting things too.
But still I can't stop loving you.

You've caused me heartaches that I cannot bear.
But yet and still your dreams I'll share.
All these things I'm sure you knew.
I just can't stop loving you.

You want me to bear your child,
I will in time, If you'll wait awhile.
I'll do all the other things you want me to do
Because I can't stop loving you.

My man I feel you are the best,
That's why I put you before the rest.
You see I can only provide for us two.
I won't, I can't stop loving you.

WHAT IT IS TO BE BLACK

To be Black, is to be alive.
To be filled with fun, and plenty of jive.
To party all the time moon to moon.
To want to pop your fingers to every tune.
To eat watermelon and candied yams,
Greens and cornbread, and Armour canned spam.
To look at life as one eternal jam.
I know what it is to be black,
Because Black I am.

To be Black is to be unjustly taken to jail.
Shut behind bars, and forced through hell.
To have a low paying job, with nothing to say.
To watch a crooked white man have his way.
To hear your hungry children, tears in their eyes,
"Feed me, I'm hungry." are their cries.
While a no good president continues his lies.
LIES?

LIES?

LIES, while your six-year-old dies
From a pig's shotgun blast right in the eye.
For stealing a funky Hostess baked apple pie.
I know what it is to be Black,
Because Black I am!

Jennie Larry

SPEAK, BLACK MAN

Speak, Black man. Shout aloud.
You are brave, mighty and bold.
Let them step aside, so you may pass.
Let them pave your pathways with gold.

Speak, Black man. Shout aloud.
For this is your country, too.
Let them see that America's equally yours.
Let them see proud and black are you.

Speak, Black man. Shout aloud.
For bold spirits and heritage is yours.
Don't you let old whitey put you down.
Don't you go through no back doors.

Speak, Black Man. Shout aloud.
There's endurance and power in your back.
Show the endurance that blackness is.
Show them the power of black.

Jennie Larry

EMERG

You know me from way back then
When I could not be called a man,
"Yaw'sr, Boss" was all I could say
And go in the fields and work all day

But you see me now as a bold man.
Who has the nerve to take your hand.
To stand out in public. To seek his rights.
For we have the power, we have the might.

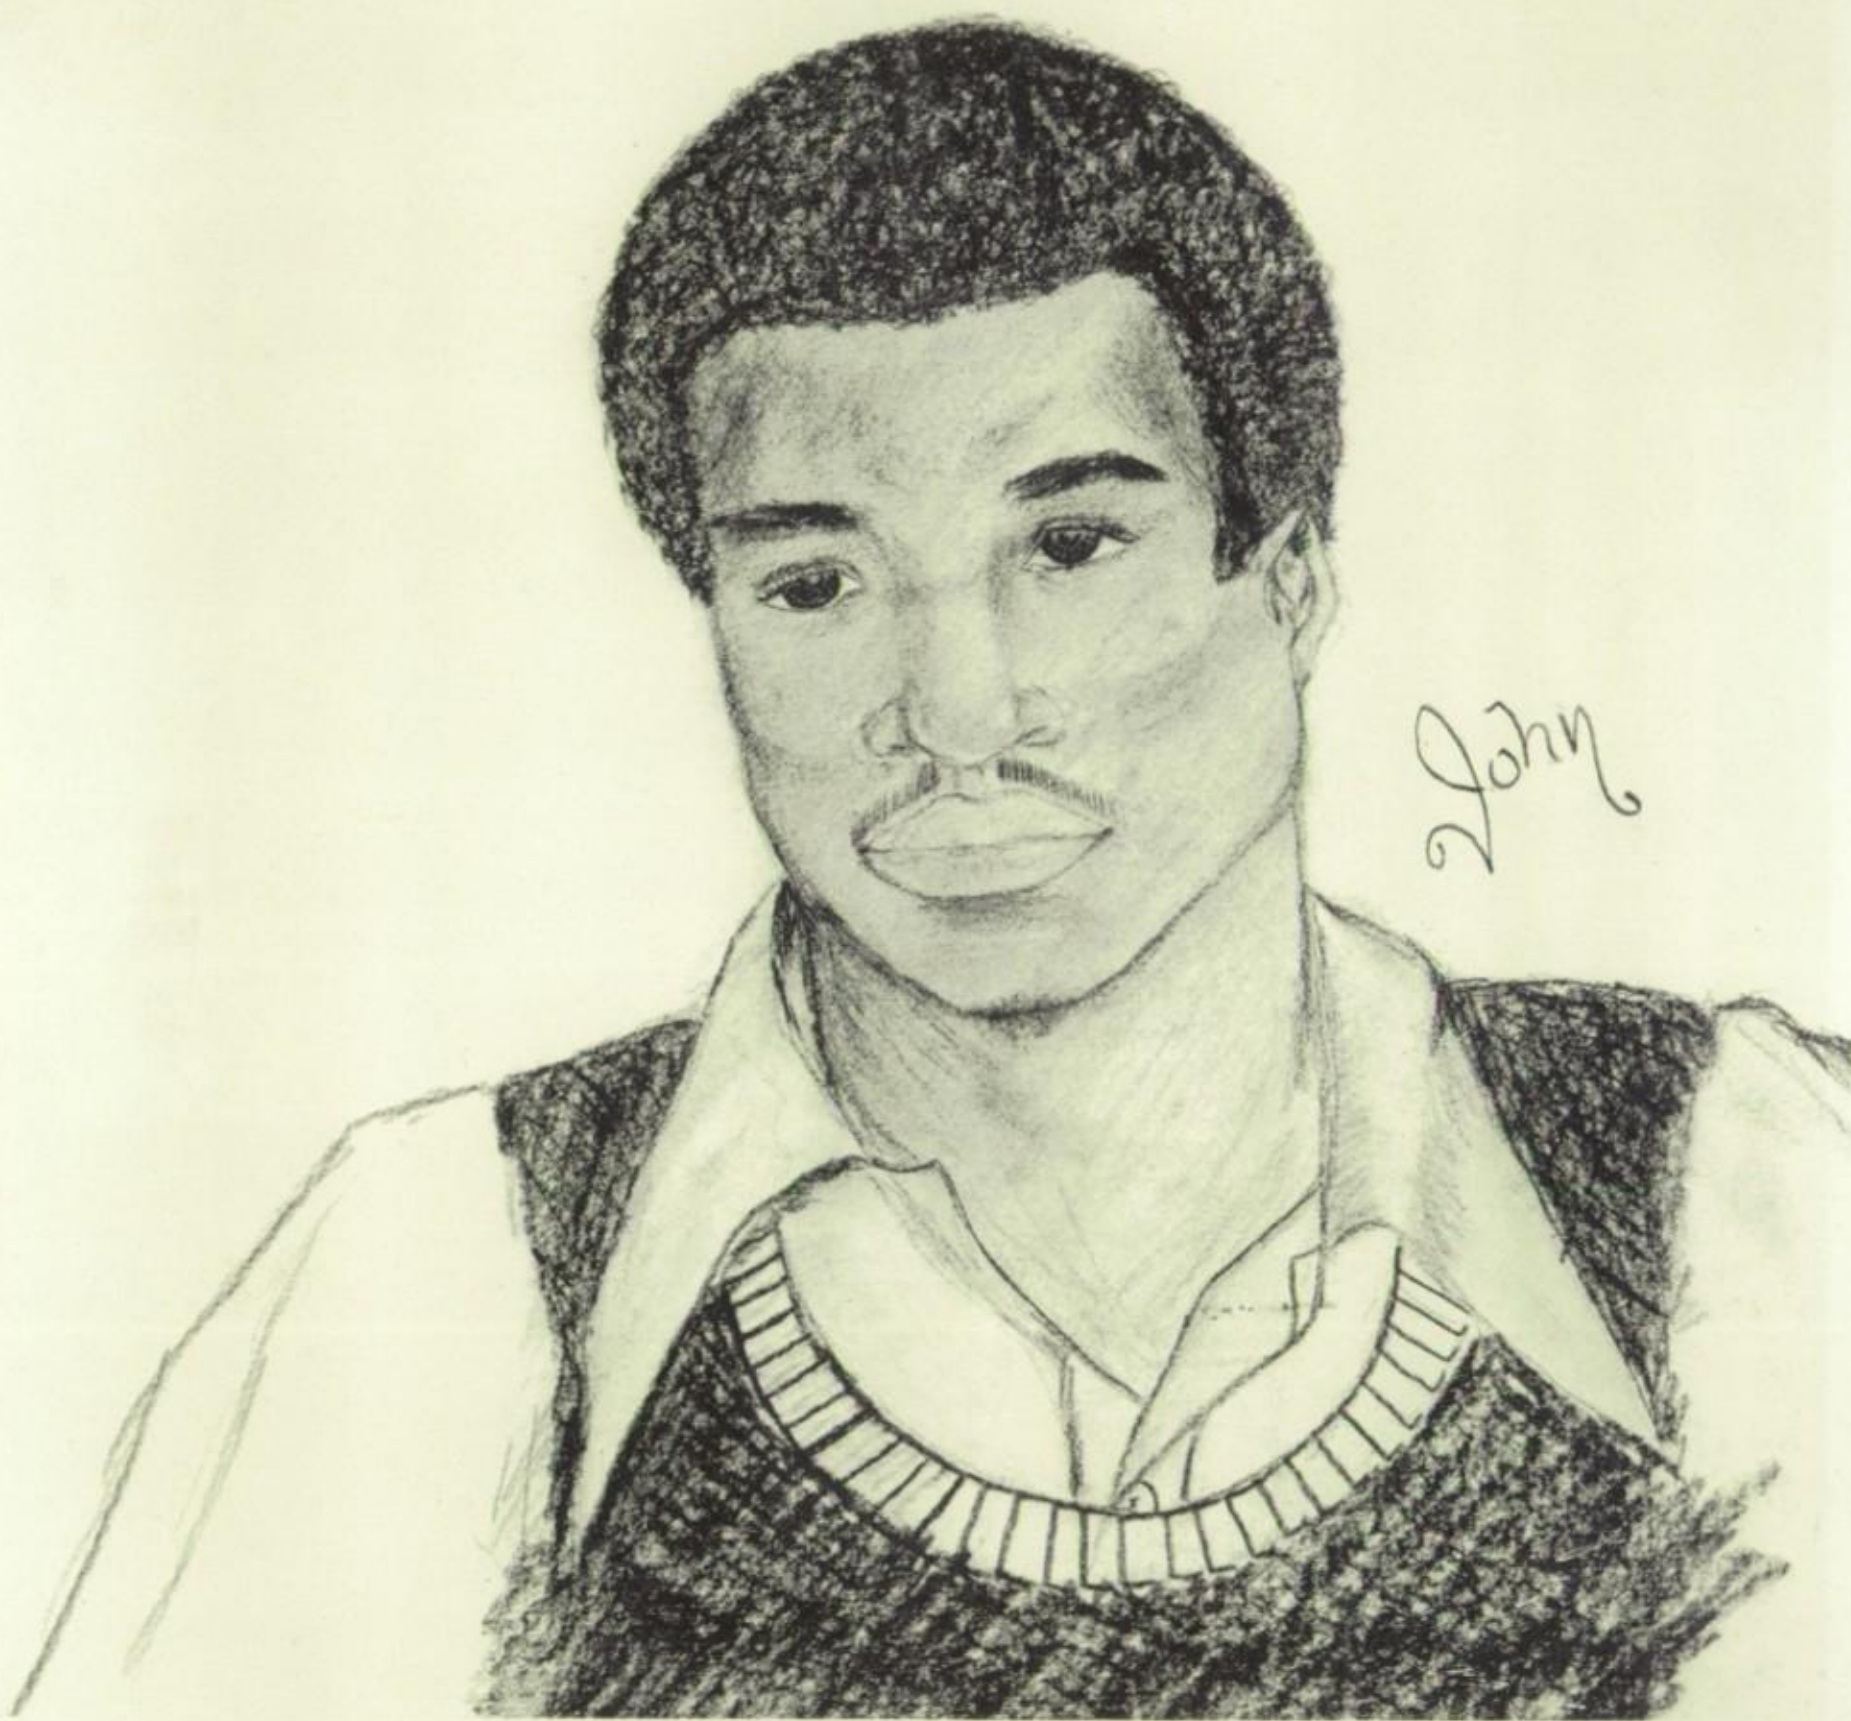

So all men will realize we all
Are created equal.
Once as individuals, now as people.

Retha Robinson

"LET ME TOUCH YOU"

Let me touch you -
Let me touch the parts of
You no one has ever seen.
Let me touch your heart;
Your soul; your moods; your thoughts;
Your every emotion.
Then and only then
Can I truly say, I know you.

ANXIETY
A POEM FOR PAM

I think I've seen you
In my dreams.
The soft rain,
A sweet rose,
A kind thought,
My favorite color.

I think I want you.
To touch your hand,
To kiss your lips,
To make you cry,
To know what you're thinking,
When I look in your eyes.

I think I need you.
To make you smile.
Let me have you
To make my life worthwhile.

I Think . . .
I know . . .
I sense . . .
I feel . . .
I love you.

LOVE

Love is like a bottle of wine
It can be bitter or sweet.
It comes all of a sudden,
Without any warning or sign.

Love is like a bottle of wine.
It ages and it mellows.
It spins around in your head.
And then it finally settles.

SADNESS

Sadness is like the wind through an empty house.
Sadness is like the crying of little children hungry in the night . . . very lonesome.
Sadness is like the howling of a coyote at the moon.
The squeaking of a door opening or closing.

Bruce Berry

SPRING

The cold wintery wind is gone
With only traces of brown as memories.
Spring has come!

The plagerized melodies of the mockingbird,
The pollen polluted pleasing breezes are just beginning.
This is, indeed, the happiest of seasons.

Old cold-worn clothes are pared for warmer weather.
Everything, whether living or not, has its spring cleaning.
New sports - and a complete change of what was.

Andrew Berry

POEM

BE TRUE TO YOURSELF

Some people have hang ups and some people just don't know how to face the world.

Some people seek to find freedom and peace by turning on to drugs.
And the others turn to suicide as a result.

Some people steal and kill trying to make a hussle.
While the others sell their bodies by the week to get a little dough for a score.

Some people lie and cheat to make a beat, supposing to fool the almighty man.

No matter what you do it won't change the world, so just try to make it the best way you can, and be true to yourself.

Elizabeth Isaac

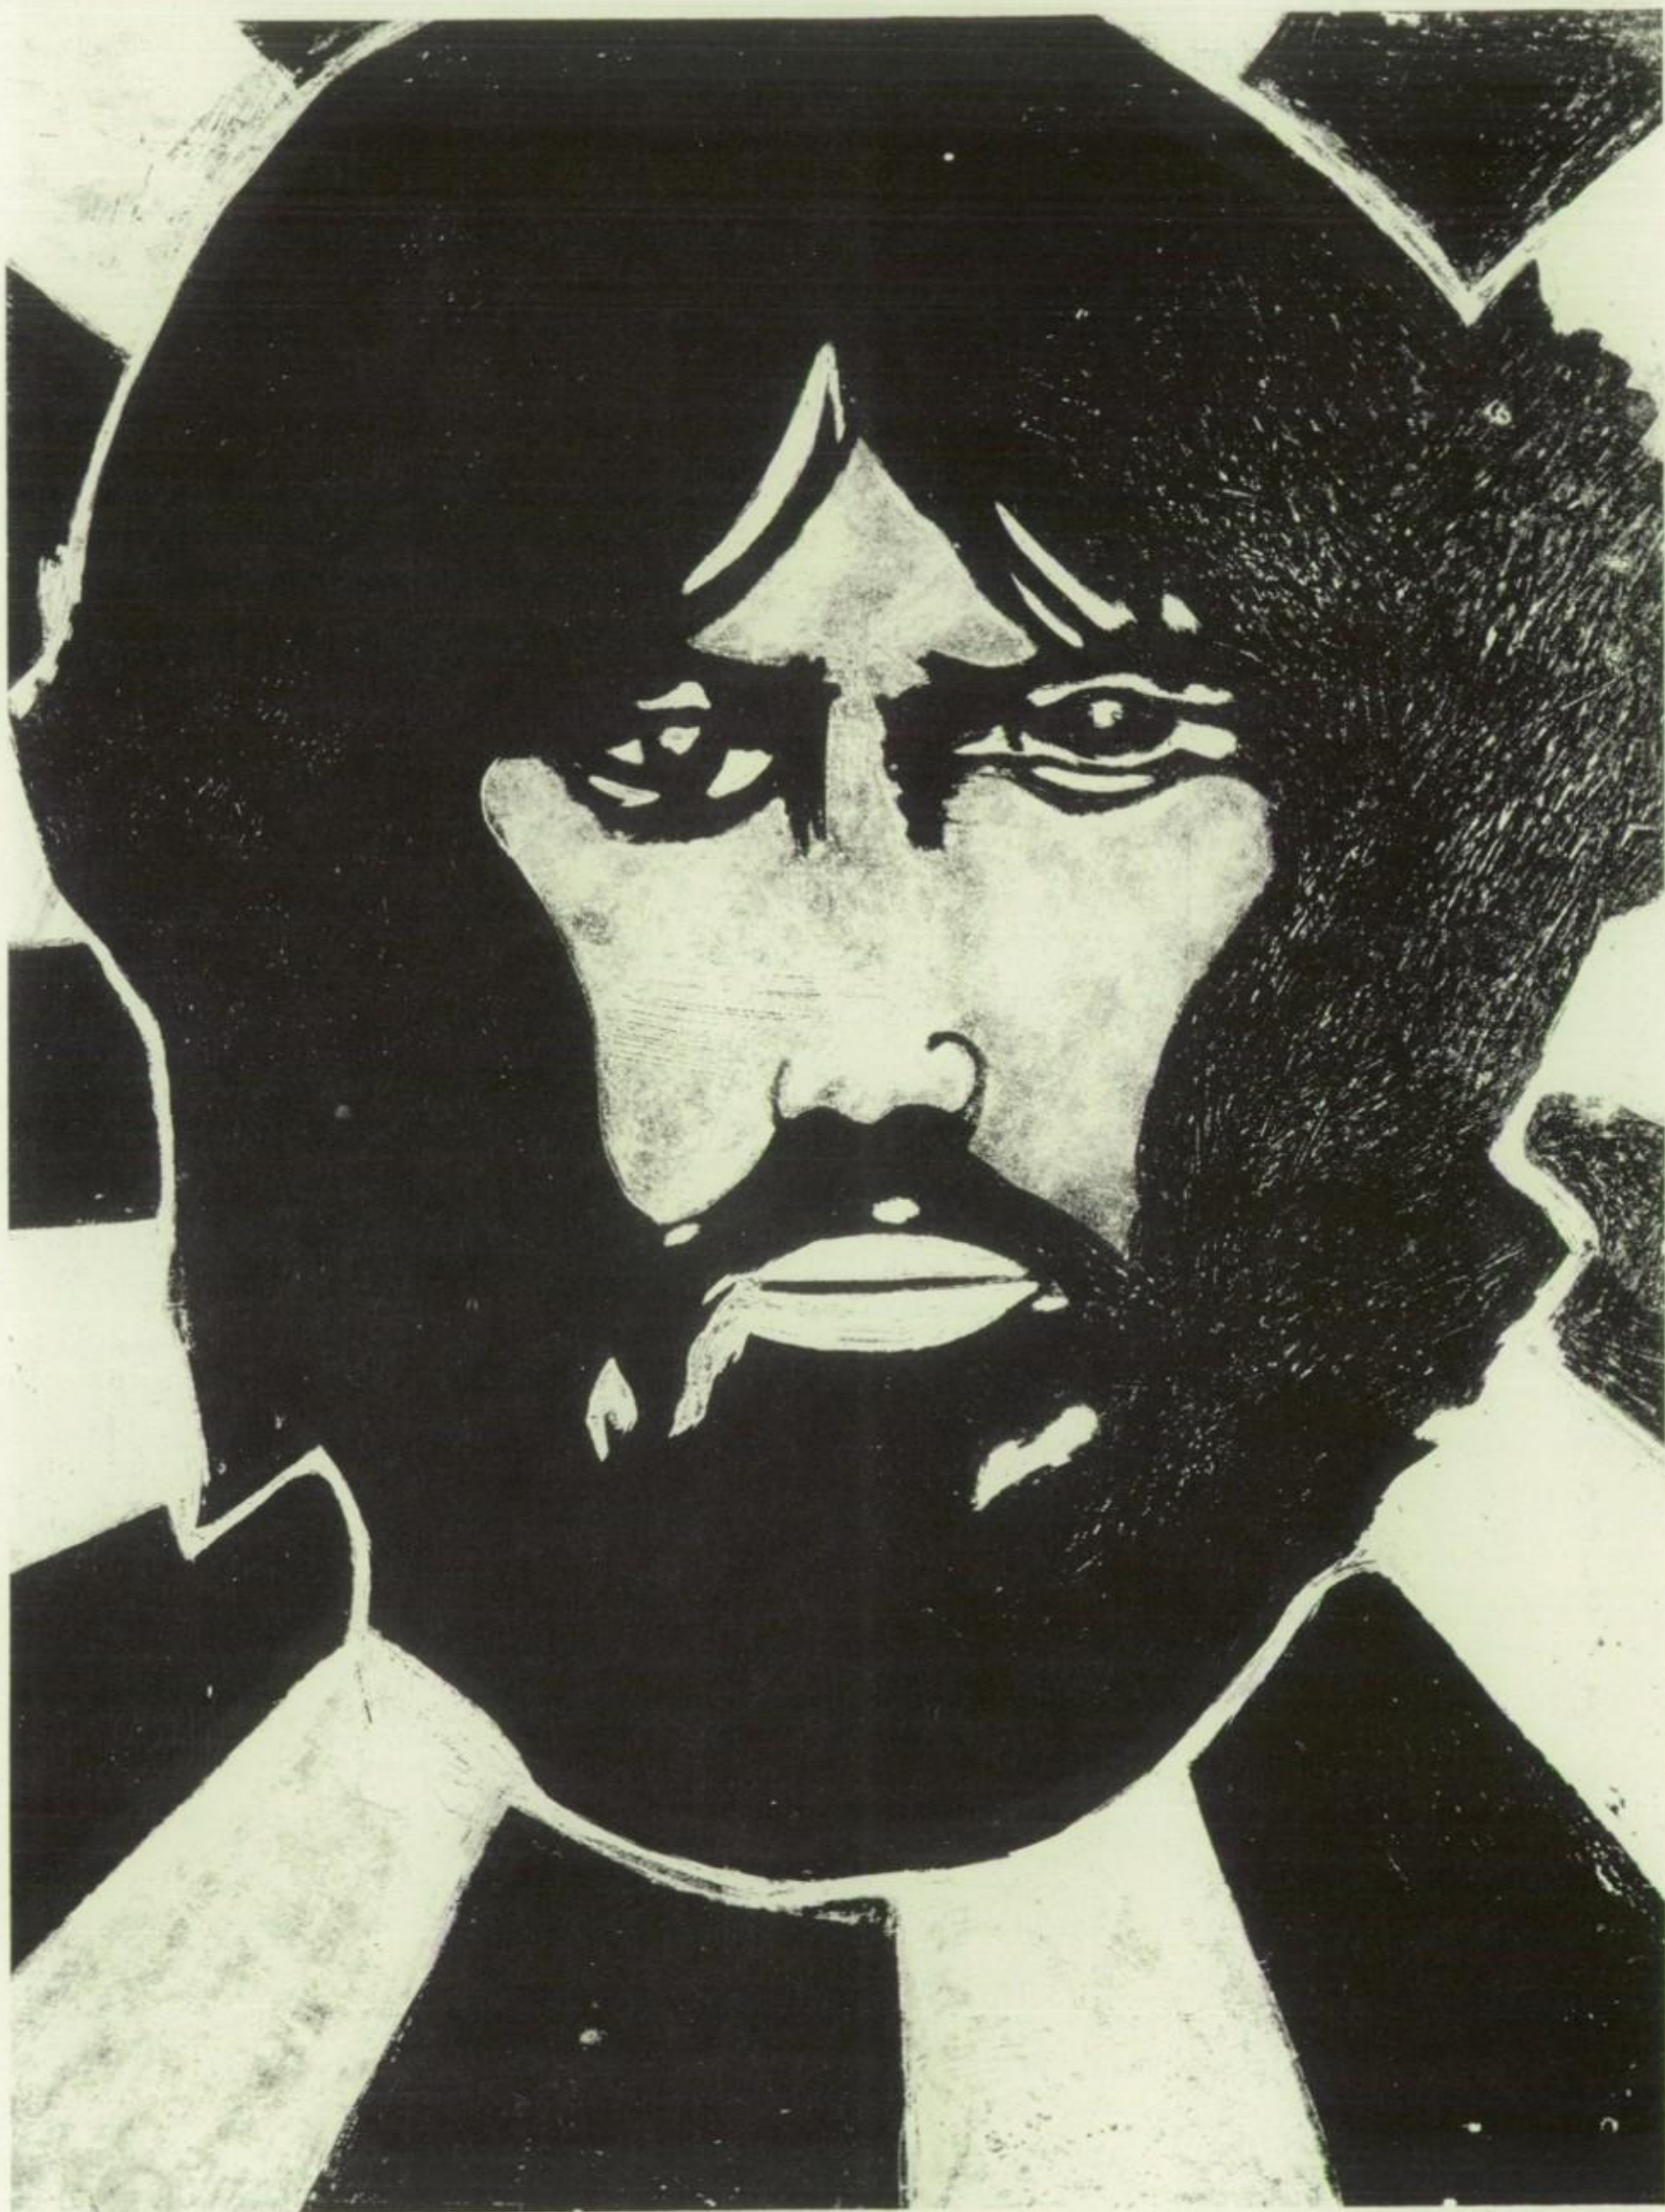

A SINNER'S PRAYER

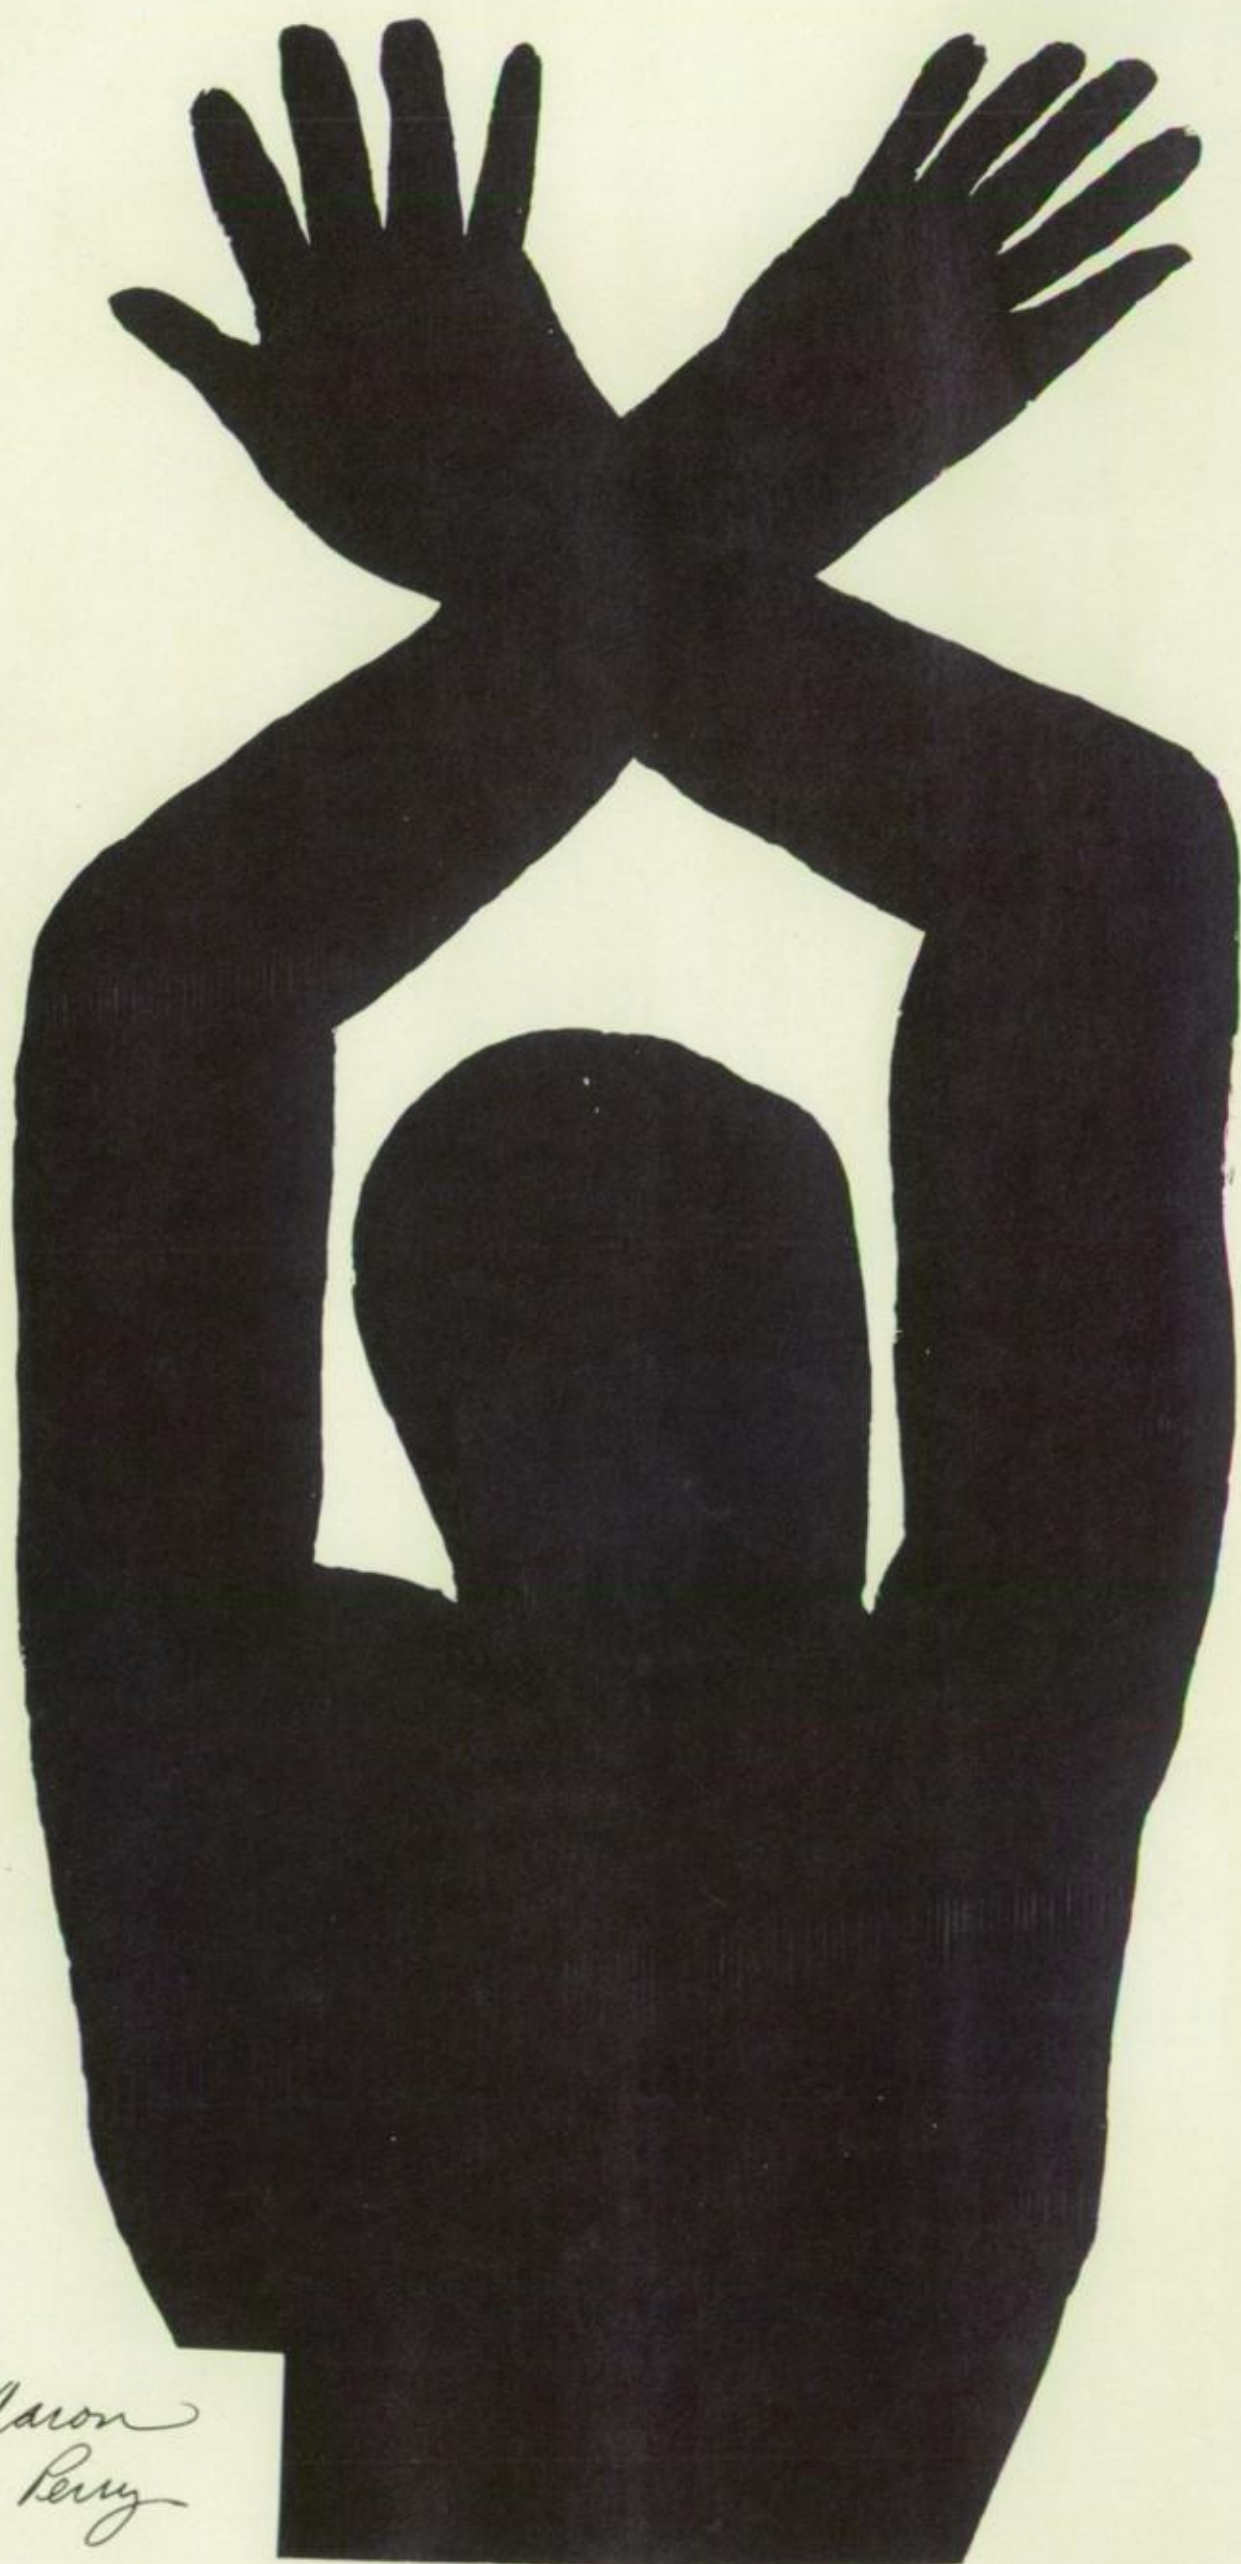

Master, Almighty, Master,
Have I not done what you have asked?
Have I not changed, though very fast?
I know I lied, I cheated, I stole,
But Master, my Master
Those days have grown old.
I lived a life, a wretched one;
Now I asked your forgiveness
For the things I've done.
My mother I denied
My sister I raped;
Please understand Master,
It was all a mistake.
Forgive me Master;
Forgive me please
I'm crying, I'm begging,
I'm down on my knees.
My heart is forsaken,
My soul is despair,
My mind is confused,
Master, please hear my prayer.
Is it too late for me to pray
For the wrong that I've done
From day to day?
I wonder Master,
I wonder why,
I stabbed my brother
And watched him die.
I hung my father from the wall;
Now I do realize the agony of all.
I'm sorry now,
I don't know what to do.
So Master, O Master,
I come to you.
You see my condition,
You hear my plea,
Master, my Master
Do something for me.
Forgive me Master
Forgive me please
I'm crying, I'm begging,
I'm down on my knees.

*“S.O.C.
Zips Past
Lincoln”*

With a real fine team effort the Bears were able to pull past Lincoln 21-0.

"S.O.C. Stomps North Dallas"

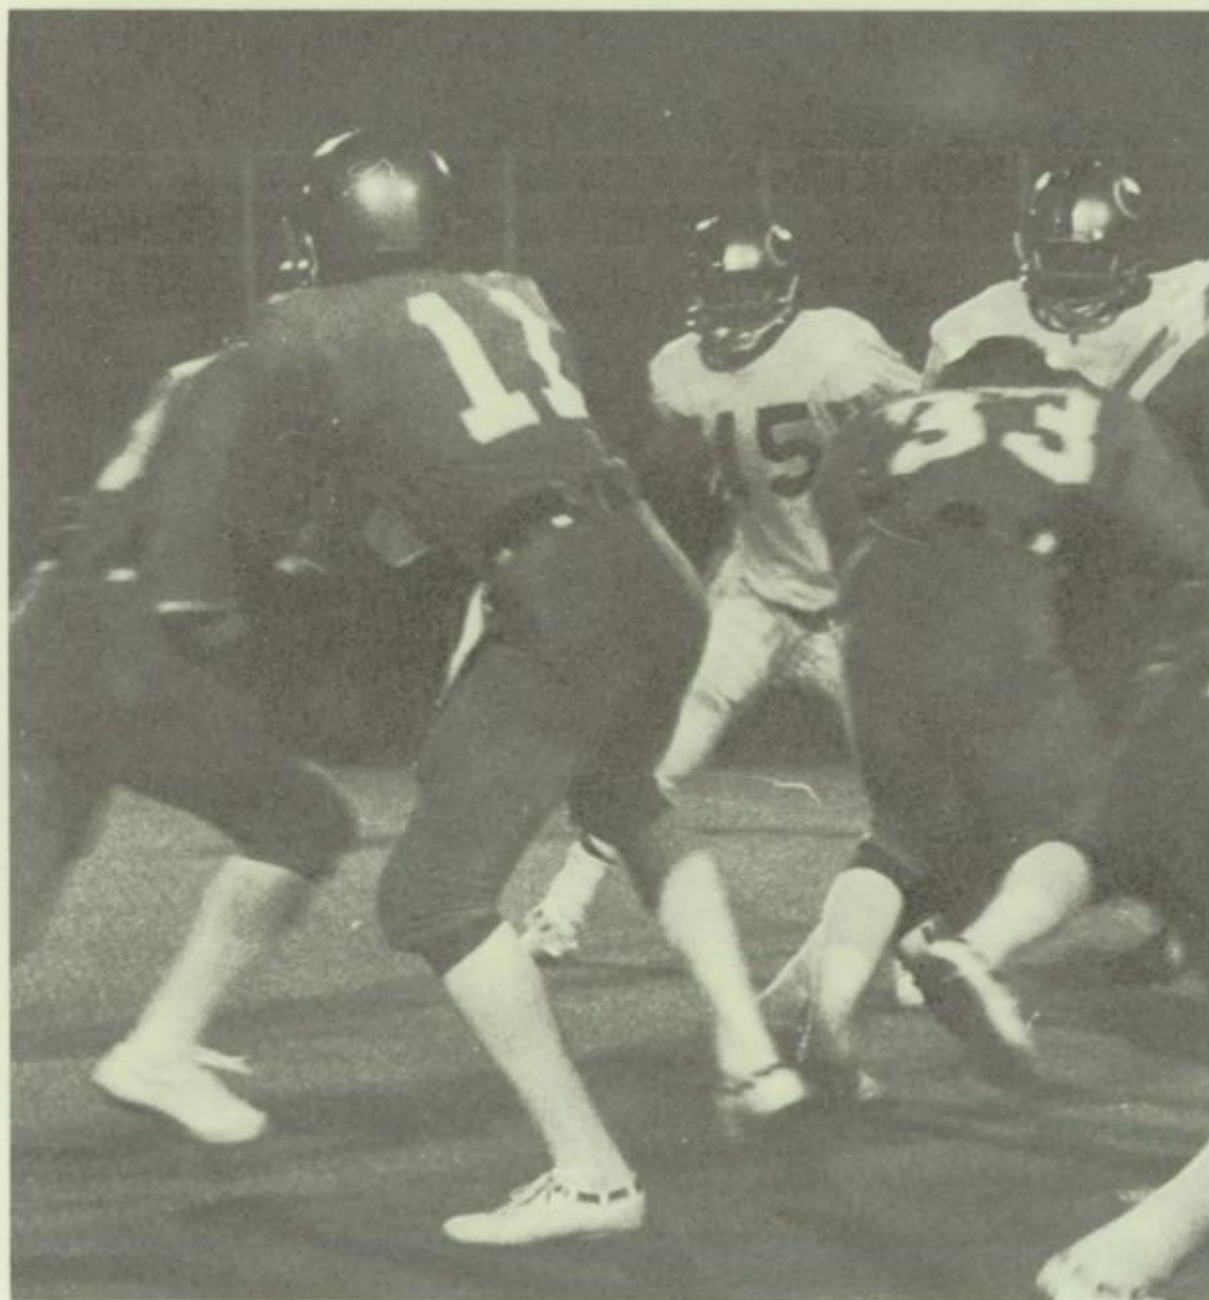

The Bears took full charge over the Bulldogs, 23-0. With fumbles and interception caused by a sticky Bears defense, North Dallas fell to the clutches of the "Bear Machines".

"Defeat Hurts S.O.C."

"Bears Suffer First Defeat of Season"

Fumbles on a hard fought and soaking night, the Bears suffer first loss of season. Despite the team endurance and a over all effort, the Bears couldn't hold off the Knights with a 9-6 score as Kimball rallied in the fourth quarter to over take the Bears 12-9.

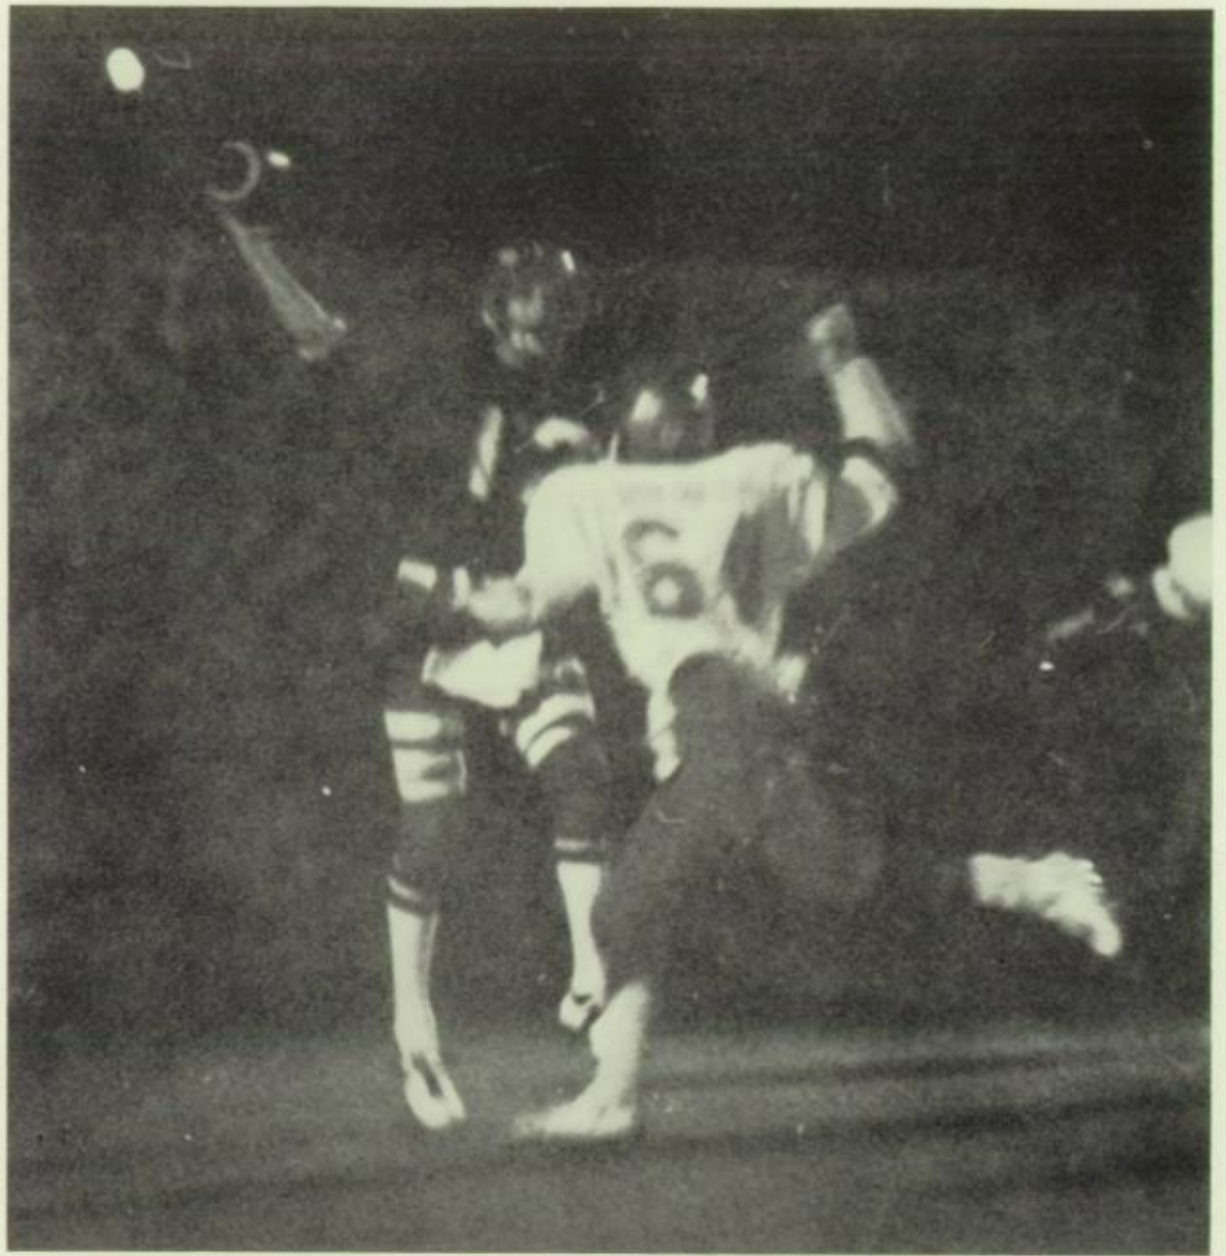

“Defense Holds Strong for Bears”

On a rain-plagued night, the Bears couldn't sustain a drive against Sunset but the defense held, as the Bears win 3rd straight, by squeaking by the Bears 2-0.

"Bears Crush Leopards"

Behind the spectacular running of Floyd Graham, the Bears disposed of Adamson in no time. Although Graham only played the first half his 97 yard and three touchdowns was enough for one night, as the Bears led 28-0 at the end of the half. Other scores came from Waymon Waters, Don Robinson, Godfrey Turner, and Paul Baker, Tommy Stevenson bottled seven extra points. Which gave a score of 49-0.

"Bears Unable to Hold Off Mustangs"

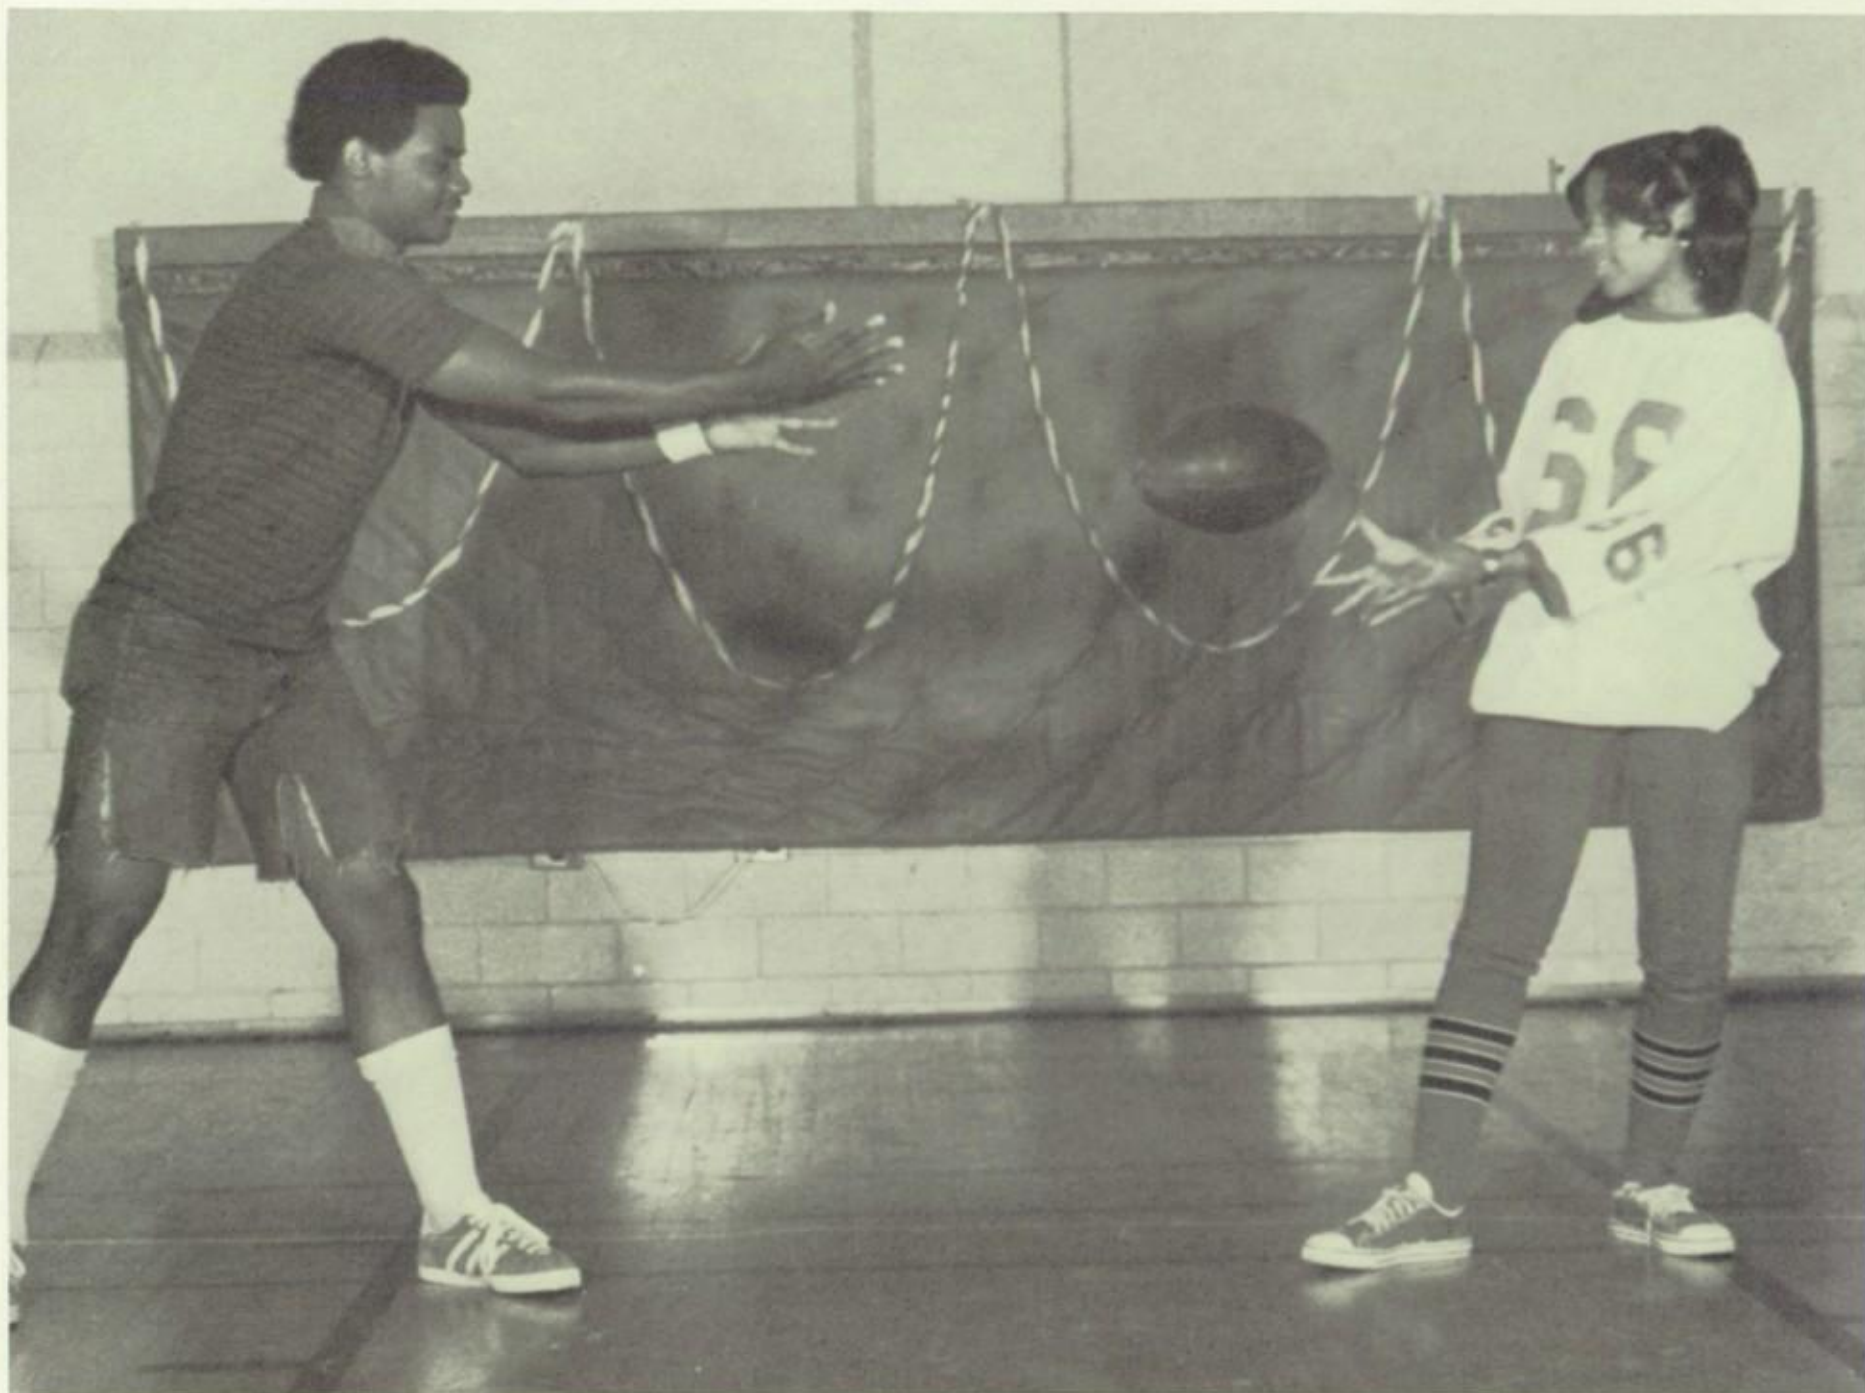

After jumping out to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. The "Bears Scoring Machine" could not generate more power as Roosevelt came back to take the half time edge. S.O.C. almost pulled it out four minutes remaining but a clipping penalty nullified a 87-yard punt return by Roderic Gerald.

S.O.C. Gains Regional

South Oak Cliff remained in contention for the state title after a bi-district victory over Lincoln 102-90, with Larry Harris providing the spark, and a real fine team effort by the Bears. S.O.C. made it all look easy.

"Bears Capture Parrots"

The S.O.C. Bears slipped into the finals of the Regional Tournament by defeating Fort Worth Poly's Parrots. Charles McMillian paced S.O.C. with 36 points. The depth of the bench proved an important factor as Roderic Gerald played tremendous defense and helped S.O.C. to a 83-78 victory.

Bears Pounce Tigers

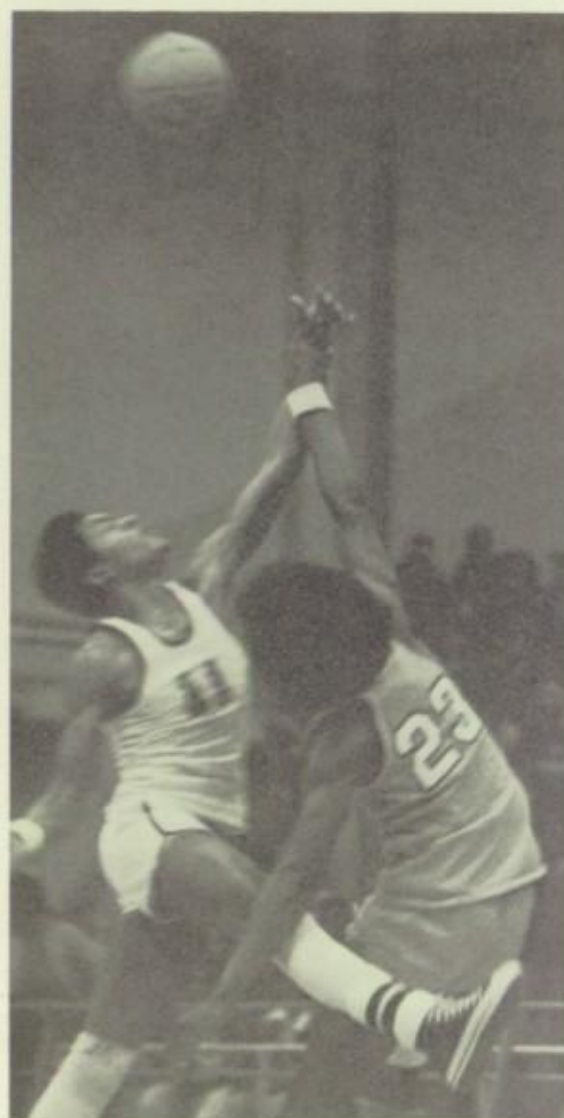

Win Regional Title 86-64

S.O.C. breezed by previously undefeated Corsicana, 86-64, in the finals of Region II. Corsicana was known for its superb defense but S.O.C. never let up once at either end of the floor.

Charles McMillian and Kenneth Williams dominated the boards by scraping off 15 rebounds each. S.O.C. out rebounded Corsicana by 39-13. Charles fired in 31 points, along with Kenneth Williams 15, proved to be enough to win 86-64.

Crippled Bears Fall

Kenneth Williams the 12-AAAA Player of the year could hardly go at 50 per cent efficiency with a pulled muscle in his back, and Larry Harris sitting out most of the game, and Charles McMillian trying to take up the slack just couldn't do it. And the Bears fell by only four points to Houston Kashmere 91-87.

Larry Joe goes up for an early two.

Travis Jefferson shows his moves and takes a basket.

Kenneth Williams leaps for two.

Charles McMillian soars high for a basket and sparks the Bears as Larry Joe and Grasshopper Smith look on.

Miss Kirstia Lynn Browning

Kirstia is a senior at SOC. She is a member of the National Honor Society, Student Council and French Club. Her hobbies include swimming, reading, dancing, and of course going to basketball games.

Basketball Queen

The Women of S.O.C.

The combination proved awesome as the girls basketball team proved to be one of the best in the city, playing spectacular defense and dazzling offense and girls made it to the finals and gained city-wide attention just as the men did.

Combine With the Men

Charles "Grasshopper" Smith sinks two points and draws a foul.

Larry Harris breaks away for an easy two points.

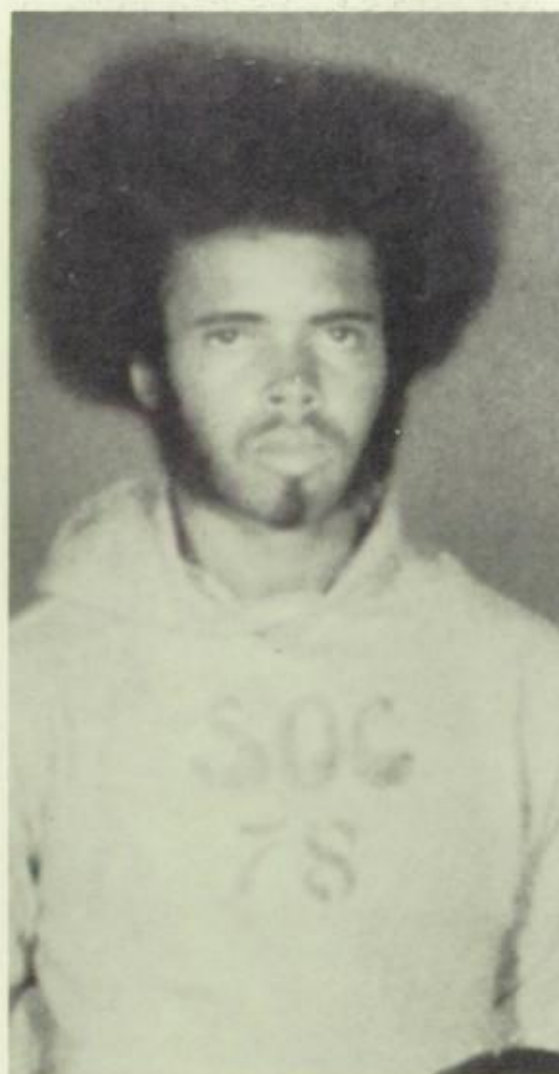

Lowell Thomas and a teammate practice their starts.

Gloria Williams a member of the S.O.C. girls track team.

Liberation!

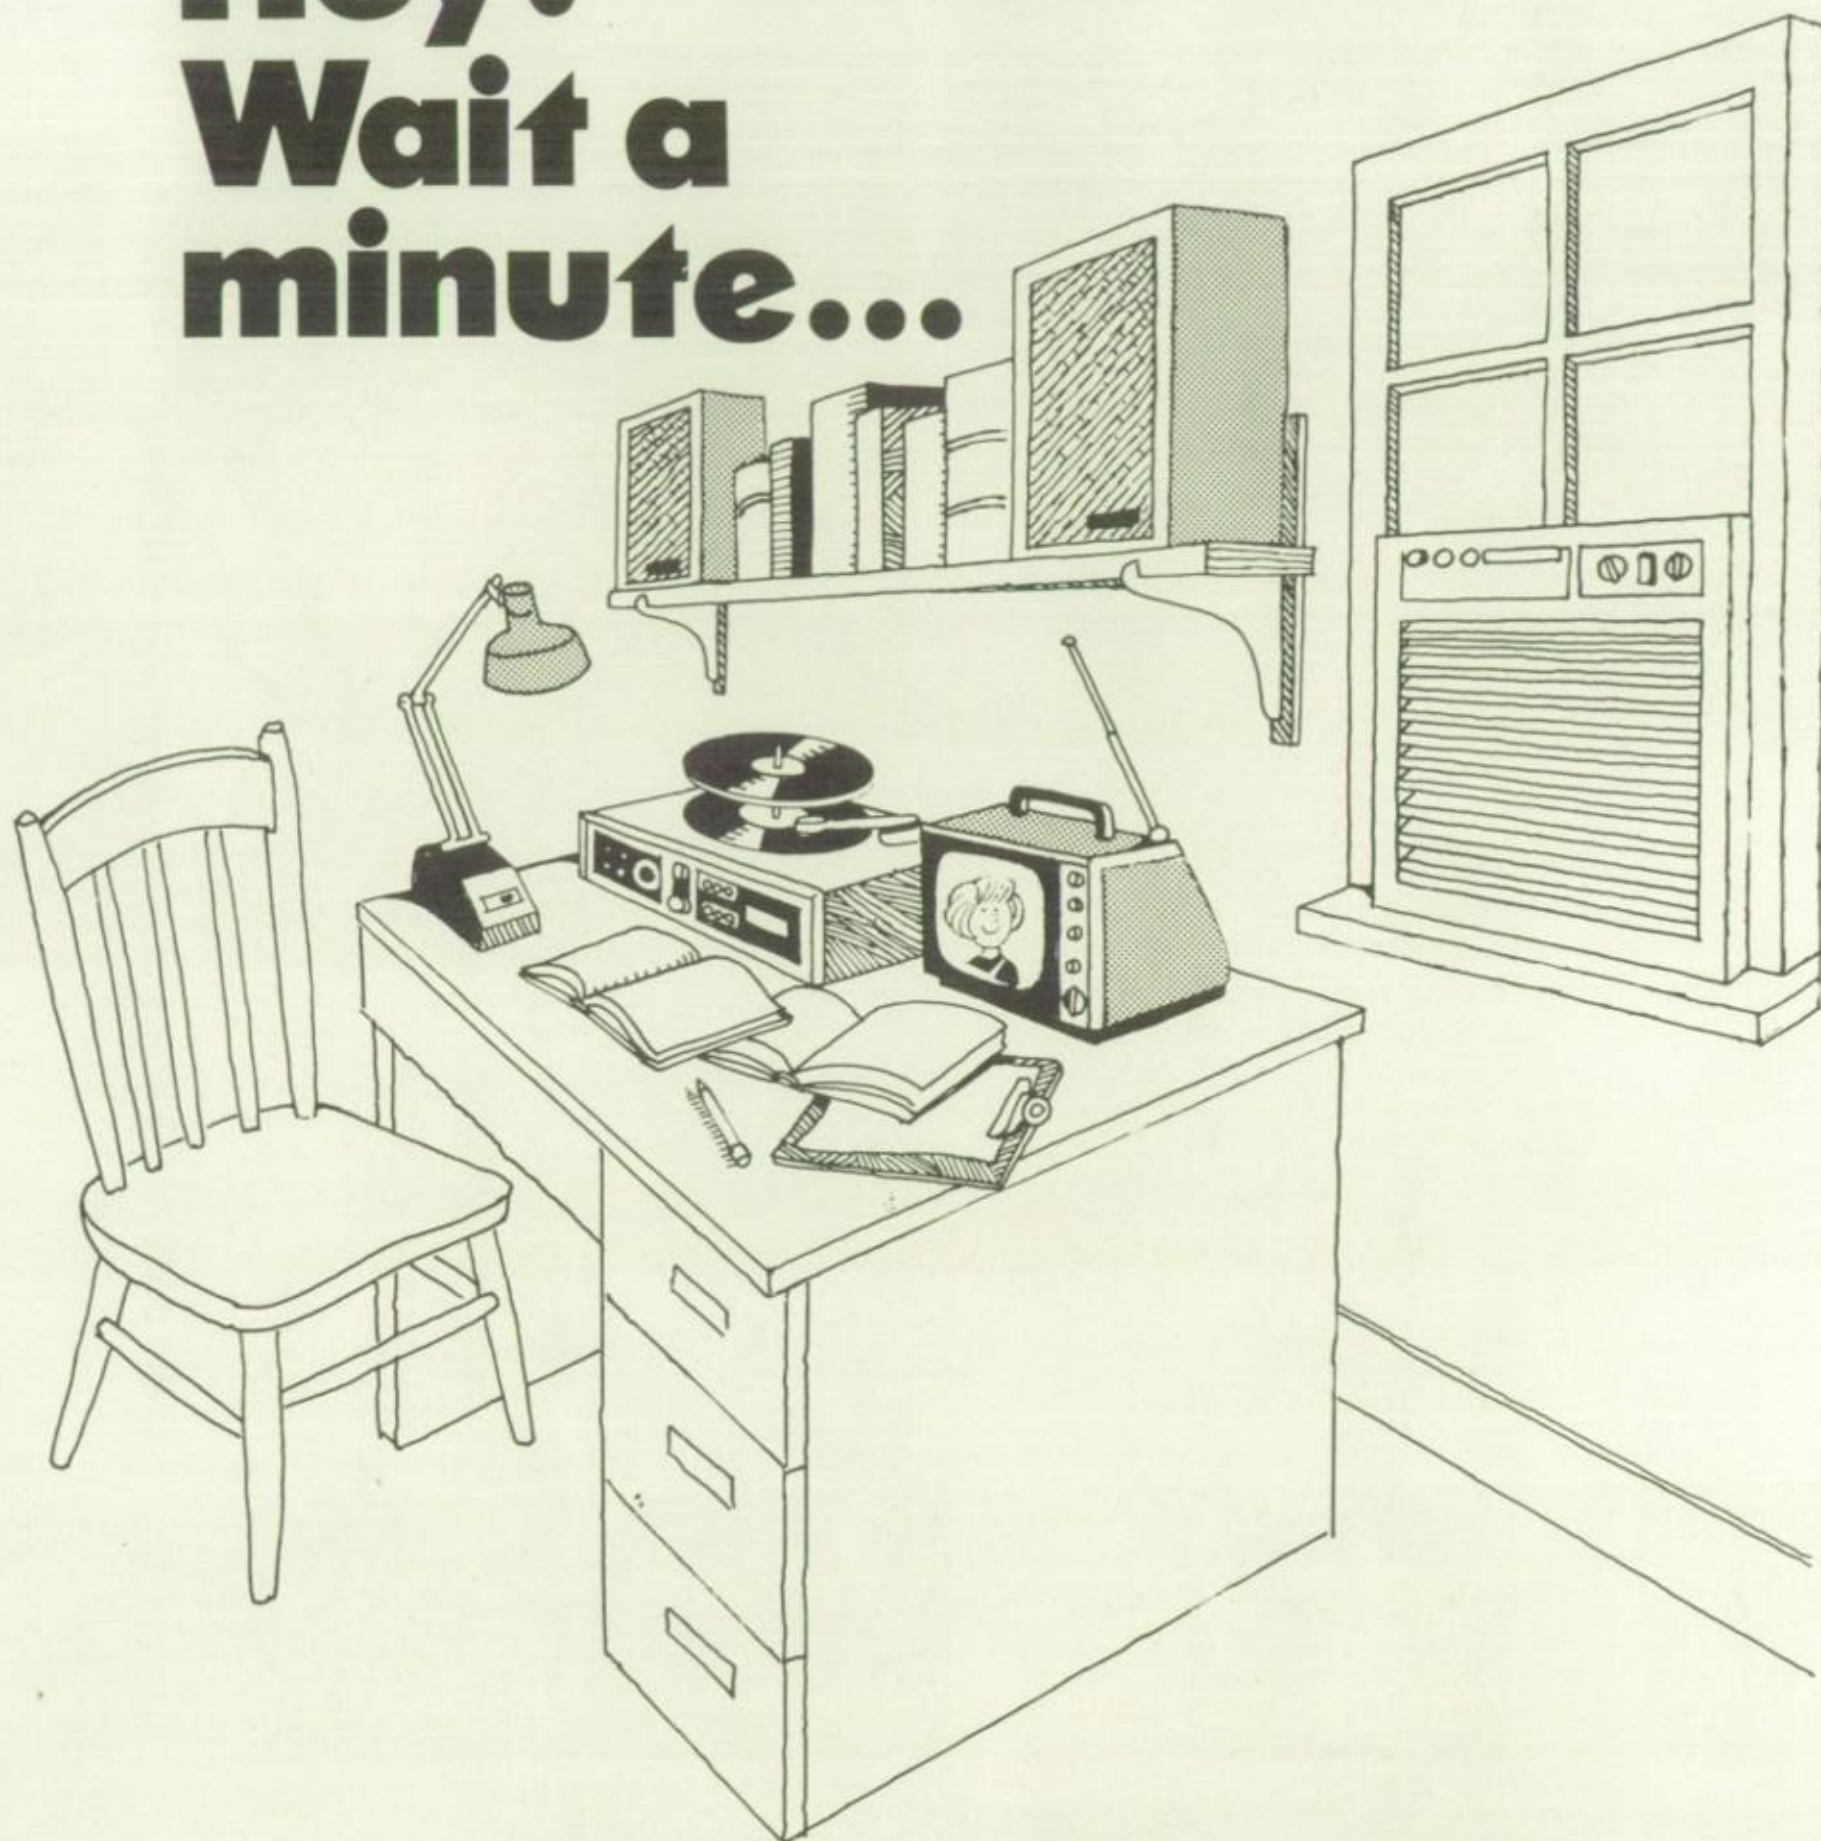

We, the Liberated Women of the 1974 Den, are glad this is over. Yes, we are tired. Our minds can forget the constant cropping of pictures, the deadlines, the typing. Our feet can finally rest. No longer must we run through the halls seeking identification for unknown faces. Oh DEN, we are free from your spell!

Everyday People

Hey! Wait a minute...

You forgot something. When you left the room, your electrical appliances were still operating...to no one's benefit.

Lights on when there's no one around; music playing when there's no one to listen; air conditioning when there's no reason for it; that's inefficient, and inefficiency costs money.

Using electricity efficiently is something we all need to think about these days. So take a minute to turn off appliances when they're not in use. You'll be making a wise move.
